Missouri Gaming Commission Terminates Services of Attorney General

Jefferson City, Wednesday, November 29, 2006- The Missouri Gaming Commission has terminated representation by the State Attorney General's Office.

MGC Executive Director Gene McNary says, "we regret this action is required. The Missouri Gaming Commission needs to be able to count on legal counsel for advice and court appearances, not politically motivated actions." McNary adds, "following the Attorney General's conduct with regard to the Casino Aztar matter in which he was involved at all levels, it became clear that the attorney/client relationship has been breached by Mr. Nixon."

The Missouri Gaming Commission will utilize in-house counsel to represent the agency in the future.
