MGC Announces Edward J. Grewach as General Counsel

Jefferson City, Missouri - The Missouri Gaming Commission has promoted staff attorney Edward Grewach to General Counsel.

MGC Executive Director Roger Stottlemire says "Edward Grewach's law experience is broad based, and of great benefit to the Commission. He has governmental and law enforcement legal experience and is an excellent candidate to replace Michael Bradley. We congratulate and wish Michael Bradley well in his new role." Governor Jay Nixon has appointed Michael Bradley as Associate Circuit Court Judge of Boone County.

Originally from Troy, Missouri, Edward Grewach is a 1981 graduate of the University Of Missouri- School Of Law. He has served as city attorney of Troy, Missouri for 25 years. Grewach also was prosecuting attorney for Lincoln County, Missouri, as well as legal counsel for four school districts within Lincoln County. He represented the Lincoln County Memorial Hospital for the past 25 years. Grewach is former owner and practicing attorney at Grewach Attorney at Law in Troy.
