Tim McGrail Named Deputy Director of Missouri Gaming Commission

Jefferson City, Missouri, Thursday, February 26, 2015- The Missouri Gaming Commission welcomes retired Missouri Highway Patrol Major Tim McGrail as deputy director.

Incoming MGC Executive Director Bill Seibert says "Tim McGrail brings a wealth of professional experience, as well as an outstanding reputation within law enforcement agencies in Missouri and around the nation. His 31 years of law enforcement, as well as his management and leadership experience, will be beneficial in our regulatory efforts."

Tim McGrail was born in Corpus Christi, Texas, and grew up in Jefferson City, MO. He graduated from St. Thomas Seminary High School in Hannibal and received a bachelor's of science degree in criminal justice from Lincoln University in Jefferson City. He served in the United States Marine Corps Reserves, and the Missouri National Guard.

McGrail begins his position March 1st 2015.
